RESIDENTIAL RECYCLING INFORMATION

The City of Hickory offers residential curbside recycling service that is picked up every other week (highlighted in blue) on the same day as garbage collection. The FY2026-2027 Recycling Calendars are available below. A map depicting the A and B Schedules and pickup dates is available on the City website on the Residential Recycling page. If you have a problem with collection, are in need of a recycling rollout, or have questions about accepted materials, call Public Services at 828-323-7500.

SAILS ORIGINAL MUSIC SERIES RETURNS WITH SPECIAL FESTIVAL ON THE FIELD SATURDAY PERFORMANCE

The City of Hickory's Sails Original Music Series, presented by Protection Products, Inc., returns this fall with free concerts of live original music every week in September. Most performances start at 7 p.m. on Friday evenings at Union Square. The Sails Stage will feature New Translations on Sept. 4, Mellow Swells on Sept. 11, and Pressing Strings on Sept. 18. Music fans will then enjoy a change of venue for a special concert at the Samuel William Davis Sr. Multipurpose Field (730 3rd St SW, Hickory, NC 28602) on Saturday, Sept. 26. The Festival on the Field starts at 4 p.m. with local food trucks, vendor booths, and cornhole games. Then the Sails Original Music Series concert begins at 5 p.m., featuring the high-energy performance and soulful vibes of N-Spire Band. Bring your lawn chairs and blankets to enjoy the evening on the field.

GET YOUR HICKORY PUBLIC LIBRARY CARD

A Hickory Public Library card opens the door to learning, creativity, and connection for all ages. With free access to books, technology, classes, research tools, and events, your library card is one of the easiest ways to stay informed and engaged in your community. At Hickory Public Library, you'll find hands-on opportunities in The Learning Lab, rich historical and genealogical resources in the Genealogy/North Carolina Room, playful early learning spaces like the Rootle Discovery Corner, and a variety of programs designed for children, teens, and adults. Hickory Public Library provides empowering opportunities and excellent service through two convenient branch locations: the Patrick Beaver Memorial main facility at 375 3rd St NE on the SALT Block, and the Ridgeview Branch at 706 1st St SW in Hickory. Signing up for a library card is simple. Hickory and Catawba County residents can register for free. Stop by either library location or visit www.hickorync.gov/library to get your card today.
