Crime Prevention

Hickory Police Department's Crime Prevention Unit (CPU) is one of two specialty units which fall under the Community Services PACT. The CPU partners with other area agencies in an effort to reduce community crime and educate citizens. Some of the functions of the (CPU) include: conducting public speaking engagements, providing workshops to community groups and organizations, organizing community watch programs, giving tours of the police department and participating in other community functions.

School Resource Officers

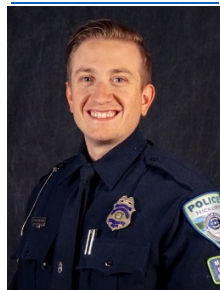

School resource officers (SRO) are assigned to Hickory City public schools. Each high school is assigned one SRO as their primary assignment. In addition, HPD provides SROs that jointly cover middle school and elementary school levels. SROs (School Resource Officers) have a number of responsibilities that include: investigating crimes; enforcing federal, state and local laws and ordinances; conducting security inspections to deter criminal or delinquent activities; establishing a close partnership with school administrators in order to provide for a safe school environment; providing D.A.R.E. (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) and increasing the visibility and accessibility of police to the school community.

Specialized United

Special Operations Team (S.O.T.)

The Special Operations Team is a group of specially trained officers that come together when a tactical response is needed. The mission of the Special Operations Team is to respond to and stabilize any critical incidents while reducing the chance of injury to all persons involved. Members of the team have primary assignments within the department, but are on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and are ready to respond at a moment's notice. The team trains utilizing scenario based training in adverse conditions to prepare for any critical incident that may arise.

K9 Unit

The Hickory Police Department Canine Unit functions as a service to enhance the operations of Police Patrol PACTs and Narcotics. Our canine teams are deployed on high risk calls for service, narcotic searches, fugitive/missing persons, building searches and tracking. They are used as well for protection for the police canine handler and other officers. Currently the police department has four canines that work on patrol handling calls for police service. Each canine is certified annually.
